

UEN-TV Highlights - August 2023

TV for Thinkers

War History

In Search of Resolution
Thursday, August 3
at 9 p.m.

Explore the current threats that nuclear weapons pose amidst the war in Ukraine.

8:15 Hiroshima: From Father to Daughter
Saturday, August 5 at 9 p.m.

Experience a woman's account as a teen in Hiroshima City during the atomic bomb explosion.

Why I'm at War
Thursday, August 10
at 9 p.m.

Meet a young Ukrainian soldier documenting his harrowing experience defending his nation.

Sakura and Pearls:
Healing from World War II
Saturday, August 12
at 8 p.m.

Engage in an insightful conversation with Japanese Atomic Bomb and Pearl Harbor survivors on learning from the past.

Tech Revolution

When Wire Was King:
The Transformation of Communications
Monday, August 7 at 9 p.m.

Take a closer look at how the telecommunications revolution forever shaped our lives.

Legends of the Sky:
The Liberty Plane
Saturday, August 19
at 9 p.m.

Learn how America's first warplane helped make aviation history.

Game Genome:
Deep Dive with Kosima Hideo
Monday, August 21
at 9 p.m.

Delve into video games' history and their influence on cultural ideals.

Need for Connectivity
Monday, August 28
at 8:30 p.m.

Investigate the impact of transportation and urban development on the endangered Florida Panther.

Women's Voices

This Little Light of Mine: The Legacy of Fannie Lou Hamer
Wednesday, August 2
at 9 p.m.

Discover the legacy of a female sharecropper who became a voice for African American voting rights in 1964.

Women and the Vote
Wednesday, August 16
at 9 p.m.

Explore five New York cemeteries where suffragists rest and meet the visitors honoring these pioneers.

Tending Clouds
Thursday, August 17
at 9 p.m.

Follow the journey of an abuse survivor who returns to her homeland seeking justice.

Thousand Voices
Wednesday, August 23
at 8 p.m.

Unveil the resilience of American Indian women in New Mexico who are preserving their culture through storytelling.