UEN-TV Highlights - January
TV for Thinkers

New Series

1,000 Days for the Planet
Mondays at 9 p.m. starting January 3

Learn about a grassroots effort to zero in on a carbon-neutral future.

World's Greatest Cemeteries
Wednesdays at 8 p.m. starting January 5

Dive into the evocative past with true stories of romance, war, espionage and intrigue.

Great Escape: The True Story
Wednesdays at 9 p.m. starting January 12

Follow the adventures of the Allied soldiers who escaped from a German POW camp in this three-part series.

Creating Common Wealth
Thursdays at 8 p.m. starting January 27

Meet people using creative ways to revitalize their hometowns in this two-part series.

The Arts

London's New Year's Day Parade 2022
January 1 at 6 a.m.

Ring in the New Year with London's spectacular annual tradition: a parade along a historical route.

Johnny Cash and Me
January 1 at 8 p.m.

Get to know the Man In Black through his actions, his words and his music.

Design in Mind: Not a House but a Home
January 8 at 9:30 p.m.

Revitalize your home with inspiration from interior designer Bunny Williams.

Florence: The Art of Magnificence
January 23 at 8 p.m.

Tour the cradle of the Renaissance through its art, architecture and history.

Honoring Resilience

NHK – My School of Many Colors
January 4 at 9 p.m.

Find out how a junior high school created a space where all students could feel at home.

Blind Trust: Leaders and Followers in Times of Crisis
January 6 at 9 p.m.

Learn how group identity may influence personal affiliations from renowned psychiatrist Vamik Volkan.

Medicating Normal
January 14 at 8 p.m.

Discover what can happen when profit-driven medicine intersects with human beings in distress.

Surviving New England's Great Dying
January 19 at 8:30 p.m.

Follow tribal leaders as they apply insights from a plague 400 years ago to today's pandemic.