

UEN-TV Highlights - July 2022

TV for Thinkers

Water

Water's Way: Thinking Like a Watershed
Monday, July 4 at 9 p.m.

Learn about the impact of development and agriculture on the Chesapeake region and how natural process may be the secret to restoring its ecology.

A Watershed Moment
Thursday, July 21 at 9 p.m.

Discover the Chehalis River valley ecosystem and how the community is fighting to save it from extinction.

Oysterfest
Friday, July 22 at 9:30 p.m.

Explore the complexity of the oyster's place in Chesapeake Bay's ecosystem, history and culture.

The Dambusters Story
Wednesdays at 9 p.m. Beginning July 27

Recount the most daring bombing raids in WWII and see the incredible story of No. 617 Squadron's famous Dams Raid over Germany in May 1943.

All Things Animals

Floating Horses: The Life of Casey Tibbs
Saturday, July 24 at 8 p.m.

Get ready to Let'er Buck! Follow the incredible life story of rodeo legend and Hollywood star Casey Tibbs.

NHK Wildlife - Carving a Niche: Okinawa Woodpecker
Monday, July 25 at 9 p.m.

Discover the fascinating life of the Okinawa woodpecker and see why this bird is celebrated in Japan as a natural monument.

Wild Ponies of Chincoteague
Wednesday, July 27 at 8 p.m.

Take a journey to the Virginia coast to see buyers from across the country take a chance to bid on a Chincoteague pony.

The Last Pig
Thursday, July 28 at 9 p.m.

Experience a farmer's personal upheaval as he questions his morality and the value of life after a decade of raising pigs.

Thought-provoking

Defending the Fire
Thursday, July 14 at 9 p.m.

Experience the compelling journey of a Native Warrior as he continues conflict resolution to survive and secure resources.

Prescription for Peace of Mind: An Option for the Terminally Ill
Tuesday, July 27 at 9 p.m.

Follow the story of three terminally ill patients pushing for legislation to allow them to live as pain-free as possible.

Your Fantastic Mind
Fridays at 8 p.m. Beginning July 30

Uncover the complexity of the brain in this provocative series that blends research with deeply human stories to explore every aspect of the mind.

In the Water, Behind the Lens
Saturday, July 30 at 8 p.m.

Explore the history and adventures of surf photographers and the dangers they face to get their shots in magazines worldwide.