UEN-TV Highlights - January 2024
TV for Thinkers

Career Exploration

Roadtrip Nation
Mondays at 6 p.m.

Travel across the country with a group of young adults searching for potential career paths.

Real Life 101
Tuesdays & Thursdays at 3 p.m.

Explore different career paths through insights shared by experts in those fields.

Walk the Walk
Tuesday, January 2 at 8 p.m.

Follow a college class taking their learning beyond the classroom by working to impact policy changes affecting their communities.

Barefoot College
Saturday, January 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Step into the classroom of a community-based education program in rural India.

Civil Society

See How They Run
Thursday, January 11 at 8 p.m.
Take a closer look at how presidential candidates take their personalized campaigns to Iowa in hopes of winning over voters.

City Voices: Homelessness to Hopefulness
Thursday, January 11 at 9 p.m.
Experience the power of hope and community through a choir formed by individuals facing housing insecurity.
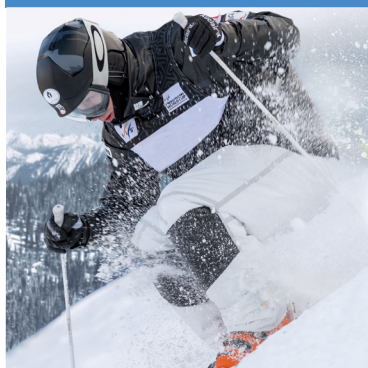

The Broken Promise
Thursday, January 18 at 9 p.m.
Examine the conditions that fueled genocides across the world through the first-hand accounts of survivors.

Seats at the Table
Saturday, January 20 at 7:30 p.m.
Discover how a literature class is bringing together college students and incarcerated youth.

New Perspectives

Mavericks
Saturday, January 6 at 9 p.m.
Delve into the untold legacy of Montana freestyle skiers.

Come One, Come All: A Circus with a Purpose
Friday, January 21 at 8:30 p.m.
Get to know a small-town circus in Colorado that is taking their show to perform worldwide.

Cecil, The Real Lion King
Monday, January 22 at 9 p.m.

Meet the wild lion in Zimbabwe whose death at the hands of hunters sparked a global discussion on conservation.

Communities as Classrooms
Tuesday, January 30 at 8:30 p.m.

Learn about the educational program in El Salvador empowering students to become problem solvers in their communities.